

COMMISSION FOR TEACHER PREPARATION AND LICENSING

1020 O STREET
SACRAMENTO 95814

February 27, 1976

75-7618

TO: All Individuals Interested in the Activities of the
Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing

FROM: Peter L. LoPresti, Executive Secretary PLP

SUBJECT: Test and Measurement Panel

Because of a recent resignation of a Test and Measurement panel member, the Commission again requests your aid in providing names of potential candidates to serve on this very important panel.

The primary function of this panel will be to provide advice to the Commission as to:

- (1) types and format of examinations appropriate for Commission adopted scope and content statements;
- (2) number of items required, length and time for the examination;
- (3) field test procedures; and
- (4) psychometric analysis.

Panel members will be selected from a list of all candidates after careful review of supporting documentation. To assure your or your nominees consideration, please provide us with a resume indicating education and experience in the field of test and measurement and evaluation.

In order to have enough members for the panel to operate in early spring, all names should be received no later than March 31, 1976.

Members of the advisory panel will not receive remuneration, however, per diem and travel expenses will be paid by the Commission.

Please mail your data or that of a nominee to:

Mrs. Marjorie B. Brodt, Consultant
Planning and Evaluation
